1 The tour programme may be filed. It serves little purpose.
At the same time the question of prescribing a definite & practical one may be noted for consideration if what is the rule elsewhere. Ind. Dn. h. 10 h hunts
2) The existing circulars on the question Nos G 4631-65 & 5-3-12 is put up. & Rn 240-11-4

5/3/13 4) Elsewhere Tour programmes & far as I am aware are not called for at all. The tours are left to the discretion of the Officers concerned & the Opening Officer sees to the receiving or returning of the journies. Here the Dewan wanted the submission probably with a view to know the movements of the Officers & give them any specific instructions he might wish to give & also to know where they would be at any particular time if he wanted to write to them. When Tour programmes have to be submitted it is better that they are submitted complete & from one place to months at a time at least a week before the beginning of the months. He will make the various officers to make their tours carefully & give the Dy Commr & the Asst Commr opportunities to see whether the same & have needless travelling over what the journeys taken in accepts on a route where there are numerous. He would be a valuable check on the claims of the officers.

5 Under demi-official instructions from Govt, the Registrar of Co-operative Societies has been sending copies of his brief programme of tour; but they are so sketchy as to serve little purpose beyond showing the places where he may be expected to be on specified dates.

6. There are no standing orders prescribing details in connection with tours & inspections of the Registrar, or his Assistant or the Inspectors.

7. If permitted, a set of rules will be framed for the purpose.
